[Date]

Dear [Name],

Happy New Year!

The pressure is on—tax time. It is the one time each year that we all have to look at our finances. Some people like to conduct their annual review at this time, which is smart. Others may simply want to power through and get done, not looking at their financial picture again until next year. Less smart.

Either way, I want to encourage you to do the smarter thing and remind you to contribute to your IRA. In addition to boosting your savings, you may be able to deduct your contribution and reduce your tax bill in the process. Let me know if I can help you with your retirement contribution. I would be happy to help with the paperwork!

Sincerely,

[Name and Company-approved title]
